

King County

Records, Elections and Licensing Services Division Elections Section

Department of Executive Services
King County Administration Building
500 Fourth Avenue, Room 553
Seattle, WA 98104-2337

206-296-8683
206-296-0108 Fax
711 TTY Relay

November 15, 2005

Re: Voter Registration Challenge - Hearing Date

Dear :

This letter represents formal notification that the hearing on the challenge to your voter registration will be held on the following date and at the following location:

Tuesday 11/22/2005
4:30 p.m.

KING COUNTY TEMPORARY ELECTIONS ANNEX
9010 E. MARGINAL WAY S.
TUKWILA, WASHINGTON
(Map and Driving Directions enclosed)

As explained in my letter to you dated November 1, 2005, the challenge to your voter registration alleges that the address at which you are registered to vote is not a valid residence address as required by Washington State Law, RCW 29A.08.010 and 29A.04.151 and that your registration address is not a location at which you could have lived in the state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election as required by Article VI, Section 1 of the Washington State Constitution.

The ballot you voted in the November 8, 2005 General Election is sealed and separated from other voted ballots. Pursuant to state law, the King County Canvassing Board is required to hold a hearing to determine the validity of the challenged ballot based on the evidence presented by you and the challenger. This is the hearing that will be held at the time and location stated above.

The voter registration challenge hearing is an administrative hearing, not a court proceeding and not a criminal action. You may appear at the hearing with or without an attorney to present testimony or documentation in reply to the challenge. If you are unable to appear at the hearing, you may file a reply by submitting an affidavit stating under oath the reasons you believe your registration is valid. In order to provide your affidavit under oath, you should include a certification or declaration in substantially the following form at the end of your statement:

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Date and Place Signed

Signature

If you choose to submit an affidavit, it must be received by this office 24 hours prior to the hearing. You may send your affidavit by fax at (206) 296-0108.

Please be advised that pursuant to state law the hearing will be open to the public. Based on the evidence presented by you and the challenger, the King County Canvassing Board will resolve the challenge to your voter registration no later than the date the election is to be certified -- November 29, 2005. If the challenge is denied, your ballot will be counted. If the challenge is granted, your voter registration will be canceled and your ballot will not be counted.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact my staff at (206) 205-5686.

Sincerely,

Dean C. Logan
Director

ENCLOSURE (1)

cc: Lori D. Sotelo, Challenger

King County

Records, Elections and Licensing Services Division Elections Section

Department of Executive Services
King County Administration Building
500 Fourth Avenue, Room 553
Seattle, WA 98104-2337

206-296-8683
206-296-0108 Fax
711 TTY Relay

November 12, 2005

Re: Voter Registration Challenge - Hearing Date

Dear :

This letter represents formal notification that the hearing on the challenge to your voter registration will be held on the following date and at the following location:

THURSDAY, 11/17/2005
4:30 p.m.

KING COUNTY TEMPORARY ELECTIONS ANNEX
9010 E. MARGINAL WAY S.
TUKWILA, WASHINGTON
(Map and Driving Directions enclosed)

As explained in my letter to you dated November 1, 2005, the challenge to your voter registration alleges that the address at which you are registered to vote is not a valid residence address as required by Washington State Law, RCW 29A.08.010 and 29A.04.151 and that your registration address is not a location at which you could have lived in the state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election as required by Article VI, Section 1 of the Washington State Constitution.

The ballot you voted in the November 8, 2005 General Election is sealed and separated from other voted ballots. Pursuant to state law, the King County Canvassing Board is required to hold a hearing to determine the validity of the challenged ballot based on the evidence presented by you and the challenger. This is the hearing that will be held at the time and location stated above.

The voter registration challenge hearing is an administrative hearing, not a court proceeding and not a criminal action. You may appear at the hearing with or without an attorney to present testimony or documentation in reply to the challenge. If you are unable to appear at the hearing, you may file a reply by submitting an affidavit stating under oath the reasons you believe your registration is valid. In order to provide your affidavit under oath, you should include a certification or declaration in substantially the following form at the end of your statement:

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Date and Place Signed

Signature

If you choose to submit an affidavit, it must be received by this office 24 hours prior to the hearing. You may send your affidavit by fax at (206) 296-0108.

Please be advised that pursuant to state law the hearing will be open to the public. Based on the evidence presented by you and the challenger, the King County Canvassing Board will resolve the challenge to your voter registration no later than the date the election is to be certified -- November 29, 2005. If the challenge is denied, your ballot will be counted. If the challenge is granted, your voter registration will be canceled and your ballot will not be counted.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact my staff at (206) 205-5686.

Sincerely,

Dean C. Logan
Director

ENCLOSURE (1)

cc: Lori D. Sotelo, Challenger

